PRESS RELEASE

December 2, 2017

Natchez, MS: At approximately 7:55 a.m. deputies responded to Peddlers Pawn shop located at 684B Hwy 61 North in reference to a burglary. The owner of the pawn shop said when he arrived this morning, he found that someone had broken in and stolen 25 – 30 handguns and various pieces of jewelry. Dispatch advised that no alarm was called in from this location at any time last night. Security video shows four hooded and masked suspects come onto the property, shatter the door and enter the building. Three of the suspects went to the gun counter, broke the glass and removed the guns. The fourth suspect broke the glass in the jewelry counter and removed some of the contents. All four suspects then ran from the building. Anyone with any information on the identity of these suspects are encouraged to contact the Adams County Sheriff's Office at 601-442-2752 or they can utilize the tip411 anonymous text tip system. The tip411 app is available for free via the Google Play Store, iTunes App Store, or by visiting the Adams County Sheriff website at adamscosheriff.org.
