PRESS RELEASE

May 2, 2017

On May 1, 2017 at approximately 8:40 pm, deputies responded to an aggravated assault on Southmoor Dr. where it was reported that a male subject had been shot and was lying in the grass. When deputies arrived, they found the victim, Kelvin Sadler (32), who appeared to have been wounded several times in the upper torso and upper arms. A resident advised he heard gunshots and when he ran outside, he saw Sadler laying in the culvert screaming for help. The resident was able to assist Sadler by applying pressure to the wounds until EMS arrived. Sadler was then transported to Jerusalem Baptist Church where he was airlifted to UMC for further treatment.

Martez R. Brown (17) was arrested and charged with Attempted Murder. More arrests are expected pending investigation.
