PRESS RELEASE

November 22, 2016, 2016

On Friday, November 18, 2016, ACSO deputies were contacted by Adams County Juvenile Detention Center (ACJDC) concerning a 14 year old runaway with a monitoring device riding in a vehicle with 47 year old Roderick Hoggatt. The monitoring device showed the juvenile in the area of the Terrace Motel. Deputies arrived at that location and made contact with a vehicle being driven by Hoggatt. The juvenile was removed from the vehicle and transported to ADJDC. Hoggatt was arrested on an outstanding warrant with ACSO for Simple Assault by Fear. A search of the vehicle revealed large quantities of cocaine, methamphetamine, hydrocodone and a handgun that came back stolen from Terrebonne Parish, LA. Officers obtained a search warrant for the motel room and recovered more drugs. Hoggatt is a convicted felon in at least four states and was subsequently charged with Possession of each of the controlled substances which are enhanced because of the firearm, Possession of a Stolen Firearm, Possession of a Weapon by a Convicted Felon and Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor. Additional charges may be added pending further investigation.
