PRESS RELEASE

, 2017

Natchez, MS: At approximately 2:45 p.m., ACSO received a call from a female complainant who said her grandfather was trying to shoot her in the area of 490 Lower Woodville Rd. The caller further advised that the suspect was driving a gold colored SUV. Deputies were on the scene in minutes and spotted the vehicle in the driveway of 8 Mazique Ln. The driver, Leroy Henderson, was detained without incident. The resident came out and said Leroy shot at he and his two cousins and the cousins were hit – one in the upper abdomen and the other in the leg. At the same time, there was a report of a second shooting and a stabbing at the 490 Lower Woodville Rd. location. 48 year old Jeanette Proby was pronounced dead at the scene; one victim has been flown to a Jackson area hospital and another victim suffered a stab wound to the hand. Residents at both locations are related to each other. The investigation is ongoing and a list of charges will be released later.
