

ADAMS COUNTY SPECIAL OPERATIONS GROUP

Press Release

On the evening of Sunday August 4, 2019, deputies with the Adams County Special Operations Group arrested Calvin "Cotton" Perry and Kimberly Tolbert after tracking their movements for three days while Perry went on a crime spree that span two states.

Calvin Perry and Timothy "TJ" Caldwell are accused of breaking into a business on Starnes Drive and stealing a large number of tools. Caldwell and Perry then attempted to pawn some of the stolen tools and sell them on the street. Deputies were able to locate and arrest Caldwell at 42 Benbrook Rd on August 1, 2019. Officers learned from several people that Perry and Tolbert fled the state and were trying to make it to Texas but were stopped on a traffic stop in Glenmora, LA by officers for a traffic violation. Perry fled from the traffic stop and is accused of stealing a car in Glenmora, LA after he fled the scene and made it back to St Francisville, LA at which time the stolen car broke down. Perry was able to use a phone and make his way back to Adams County, MS and hid out at a residence on Southview Dr in Adams County.

Tolbert was released from the scene and was able to get to a residence in Vidalia, LA. Deputies received information about where Tolbert was staying, she had already left and eventually ended up at the same residence on Southview Dr with Perry.

On Sunday, August 4, 2019, deputies were able to track Perry and Tolbert's to a room at the Excellence Inn on Sgt Prentiss Dr and were taken into custody without incident. Deputies were also able to recover some of the stolen property that was sold in Vidalia, LA.

Perry, who is on Probation for Felon in Possession of a Firearm, was charged with Possession of Stolen Property in Adams County and Theft of a Motor Vehicle, General Speed Law, Aggravated Flight from an Officer, No License in Glenmora, LA.

ADAMS COUNTY SPECIAL OPERATIONS GROUP

Timothy Caldwell was charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and Possession of Stolen Property.

Tolbert, who is out on bond for Accessory to Murder, was charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.

Sheriff Patten said that others arrest will be forthcoming on people that helped sell the stolen merchandise. The time and effort that the deputies put into these arrests shows the dedication and compassion that they have, they got the trail, kept beating the bushes, and were able to apprehend the suspects and get most of the property back. I am very proud of them.
